

About us:

Launched in early 2016, Crixeo (pronounced 'krē-zē-ō) is a place for creative minds to gather, discuss, and share how our lives intersect with the arts. We're building a community of diverse thinkers who want to share the beauty, heart, and determination found around us every day. Covering everything from books, music, movies, technology, and street art to sports, design, fashion, culinary arts, and family—and so much more!—our stories will elevate the creativity that surrounds us. Crixeo is a space where life and art intersect, community develops, and courageous innovation brings people together to make the world an incredible place to be.

Medallion Press, Inc.

Founded in 2003, Medallion Press has produced the works of hundreds of talented and best-selling authors of fiction and nonfiction. We were among the first to acknowledge the massive shift to digital reading, where we embraced the e-book evolution by pushing innovation further with interactivity and TREEbook™ technology. With a passion for the arts, Medallion has also invested in independent musicians and filmmakers to increase their discoverability.

In an effort to respond to the ongoing transformation of media and how arts and culture are shared, Medallion now introduces Crixeo. Publishing compelling work remains Medallion's aim, and the team will continue to innovate to bring people together through the arts.

Love Crixeo and want to do more to spread awareness of the arts?

Great; then write for us!

We are looking for creative minds to contribute content to the Crixeo community.

We are currently looking for writers to tell stories that are passionate to them and to bring new perspectives through their own voice on various topics based around the arts. Writers who want to share the beauty, heart, and determination found around us every day. We want stories that are conversational without being overly controversial (We are not here to tear anyone down). Need more guidance on what we want to cover, then read through our blog and check our social media pages.

Ready to

Then pitch us your ideas by emailing us at Contribute@crixeo.com. Be sure to include a brief description about you and what kind of writing you do (writing samples are very welcome if you have them).
